

This micrograph shows a cross-section of a metal specimen. A prominent, dark, irregular crack is visible, extending vertically through the center of the image. The crack appears to be a fatigue crack, with some branching and a rough, jagged surface. The surrounding metal material has a fine, granular texture. The lighting is somewhat uneven, with the crack being the darkest feature.

THE HEBREW NEW YEAR. It will be celebrated in all the Temples of this City this Evening.

This evening the festival of Rosh Hashanah or "New Year" will be begun by Hebrews throughout the world. This evening services will be held in all the synagogues. At Share Kneth and Temple Israel services will begin at 7:30 o'clock; at B'nai Elnah United Hebrew Temples at 8 o'clock, and at B'nai Amos, Shearith Israel and Shearith Shalom at 8 o'clock. The various synagogues have been tastefully decorated with palms, flowers and evergreens, as is the custom of the many synagogues and prayers form a prominent part, but the chief celebration is the blowing of the trumpet, which is the blowing of the shofar, which is the ram's horn. The blowing is in sign of the proclamation of God is King, and is a reminder of the blowing of the trumpet which the people heard when the law was proclaimed from Sinai. It also commemorates the intended sacrifice of Isaac by his father Abraham on Mount Moriah. The festival is popularly called "New Year," but in Holy Writ it is called "Rosh Hashanah," "Day of Remembrance," and the "Day of Blowing the Shofar."

The coming year is to be 5650. The date of the festival is calculated by the lunar and not by the solar year. Thus the holiday was celebrated last year on September 8. The holiday season continues one week. Only the first day and the last day are celebrated, and the synagogues by the Reformed Israelites, but the Orthodox Hebrews observe the first two and the last two days. The interesting days are semi-festivals.

MILLS & AYERLL, S. E. Cor. Broadway and Pine. CHARLES POPE IN EXILE.

A Letter From the Homeless Toronto (Canada) Consul. Freeman Barnum this morning received a letter from Charles E. Pope, who had at the time of writing, just been established in his post as United States Consul in Toronto, Canada. Mr. Pope writes in a March 17 spirit under the influence of touch of nostalgia for his native Toronto, but he thinks there is no place like St. Louis. The Toronto people are very nice and pleasant, but St. Louis friends are better. Evidently exile does not like him, to use the words of the poet, "The exile's heart is torn by the pain of the exile's heart." He sends the kindest messages to his friends, who will no doubt give him much when he is knighted of St. Patrick they gather round the festival board.

THEY GLADLY ACCEPT. Grain Receivers Indorse the Union Elevator Co.'s Rates on Oats.

This morning a paper was circulated among the members of the Grain Receivers' Association asking their signatures to an expression of approval of the rates on oats on cars established by the Union Elevator Co. The terms are that oats stored in special bins shall pay 1 cent a bushel for storage during the first five days.

The paper was signed by all to whom it was presented, and the terms were accepted as very favorable. The rule as established saves the former receiver, which amounted under the former rates, 3 cent a bushel for the first three days storage.

Two colored individuals, Emma Brown, living at 108 Linden street, and Willie Brown, whose residence is not known, fought on Morgan street between Eighth and Ninth about 10 o'clock last night. The Brown woman was knocked down and badly beaten in the face. Her escape and has not been apprehended.

Nokomis' G. A. R. Camp-Fire. By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. NOKOMIS, Ill., September 25.—The G. A. R. camp-fire and reunion to be held here in the park three days this week opened to-day. Everything looks favorable for a large turnout. All the business houses and many private residences are contributing to the occasion. All the G. A. R. posts within a radius of thirty-five miles will be here by the afternoon. A number of prominent G. A. R. officers, including John L. Hinkler of Carlinville, Hon. A. J. Lester of Springfield, Hon. William G. Cochran of Leavenworth, Senator George J. Bacon of Paris, Gen. Jesse J. Phillips, and Hon. J. M. Trout of Hillsboro, will be here to address the soldiers. The programme to-day consisted of an address of welcome to the citizens by Mayor Randall this morning, and receiving visiting posts and speakers this afternoon. Hon. J. A. Drury, Governor of the State of Illinois, delivered an address of welcome to the G. A. R.

Maryland's Infected Swine. CENTREVILLE, Md., September 25.—Drs. A. W. Clements and T. L. Armstrong, from the Department of Agriculture at Washington, have made an examination of the infected swine in this (Queen Anne) county. They are of the opinion that the infection is the regular hog cholera, and that the disease is contagious and that it can only be eradicated by the slaughter of the infected animals. The private residents will continue their investigations and forward a report to the department at the end of the present week.
